

Internship – Journalist (F/M)

20 hours per week, 6 months in Brussels, Belgium

Job description:

The Student Assistant will support the Brussels' team in all their tasks, and provide news as well as update and maintain databases, websites, and training materials and contribute to research activities.

General Requirements:

- At least two years of successfully completed university education
- Capacity to work independently, good team spirit, sense of responsibility
- Excellent command of written English is required (English as first language preferred). The knowledge of Spanish is an asset. The knowledge of a third language would be an advantage.
- Excellent PC and Internet skills
- Good communication skills, both orally and in writing

Specific requirements:

- Knowledge of the EU institutions
- Experience in working with European, academic and/or public administrative organisations preferred
- Preferably studying Journalism, Economics, International Relationships or European Studies

Conditions of service:

- Internships with Etc are remunerated. The fixed remuneration is €590 in total for the entire period. Weekend work and overtime may be required. No additional payment shall be awarded
- Living expenses in Belgium must be covered by the remuneration proposed as outlined before. Any additional costs must be covered by the intern him- or herself or by a sponsoring institution
- There is expectancy of employment at the end of the internship

Applications written in English or Spanish, including a cover letter and Europass curriculum vitae with photo, -and with reference to the vacancy JOURBRU- can be sent before 12 November 2009 to info@eurotecom.eu